ASSESSMENT – TEAM

PERFORMANCE ASSESSMENT

Team assessment provides information on the potentials, limitations and capacities of team members, based on which team success can be predicted.

This methodology also provides insight into the competencies of candidates during the selection for a particular position within the organization, provides information on their strengths and weaknesses and allows comparison of candidates.

It involves the use of psychological tests, tests of leadership skills, as well as intelligence tests, creating an assessment center for employee evaluation.

The service is recommended for the assessment of management positions at all levels in the company.

Assessment of respondents using the 360° methodology involves the examination of managerial and leadership skills at three levels - at the level of superiors, subordinates and at the same organizational level.

The service is intended for all leaders and managers who aim to improve their skills based on the feedback of their employees, in order to improve the quality of work atmosphere and better performance, and thus contribute to the company. This service is also used to assess the Leadership and Managerial capacity of employees in these positions.

EMPLOYEE SATISFACTION SURVEY

Are you interested in the "blood picture" of your company?

What are your strengths and weaknesses and areas for improving your corporate culture?

The survey of employees' attitudes is a survey of employee satisfaction with certain motivational factors through a questionnaire, with a clear proposal of activities that will lead to improvement in the coming period. Using the questionnaire for assessing the attitudes of employees, we gained insight into what the expectations of employees are, how satisfied they are with the work in the company and whether their values are in line with company values.

The research includes a questionnaire of at least 80 questions on the basis of which we make a quantitative and qualitative analysis. The research is conducted through our Application.
